ProAcid™ 5

Encapsulated Acid

Balchem's advanced encapsulation process allows us to deliver customized formulations, encapsulating multiple acids into a unique product or providing them in single, highly-concentrated forms.

Key Advantages of Encapsulated Acids

- Antibacterial Activity – Reducing intestinal pH to hinder the growth of harmful microorganisms in the intestine (E. Coli, Salmonella, Campylobacter)
- An alternative to antibiotics to promote growth and maintain optimal production and health
- Improve feed conversion rate
- Promote intestinal eubiosis
