Balchem Corporation Announces Price Increase

Montvale, New Jersey, March 25, 2025. Balchem Corporation (NASDAQ: BCPC) announced today a price increase of approximately 5% on its PuraChol[®] line of Choline Chloride products in North America. The price change will become effective on April 1st, 2025 (or as contract terms permit) and encompass all grades of dry and aqueous Choline Chloride. Balchem said this increase is driven by higher manufacturing input costs, and customers should contact their Balchem sales representative for more details.
